

Artifact Storage — Archival-quality storage cartons will replace acidic corrugated boxes, as well as contain other artifacts currently stored open, on the open shelving. Interior, organizational trays for some 15 x 12 x 10" cartons will safely separate objects and make most efficient use of space within.