History Foundation Receives Grant from M.J. Murdock Charitable Trust

The Montana History Foundation, a 501(c)(3) nonprofit charity based in Helena, is the recipient of a 3-year, $215,000 grant from M.J. Murdock Charitable Trust. The Murdock Trust, of Vancouver, Wash., has been supporting nonprofits in the Pacific Northwest for more than 45 years. The History Foundation will use the grant to expand fundraising operations.

“We are honored to be the recipient of a grant from M.J. Murdock Charitable Trust,” says President & CEO Charlene Porsild. “With this grant, we will hire a full-time, permanent development director who will take our fundraising to new levels and allow us to continue expanding our grant-making program.”

Since 2012, the History Foundation has placed over $1,000,000 into historic preservation projects across Montana.

Applications are currently being accepted for the development director position and interested candidates can learn more at www.mthistory.org/employment. The deadline to apply is January 25th.
