It's time again to take a History Road Trip! This summer we are taking you out on the road to show you some of the fantastic places that you can visit to learn more about Montana's history - where you can also see some of the work being done by our grantee organizations first hand. First up: Fort Assinniboine, a 2021 grant recipient.

TAKE A HIKE WITH ZACH

Our History Hikes & Walks program continues in Helena this summer with the Mt. Helena History Hike and Breweries & Brothels History Walk. These adventures are engaging and educational thanks to the guides who lead the tours - and we want to take a moment to introduce one of them. Follow this link to read a profile of guide Zach Coe, to learn how he came to be a part of History Hikes & Walks and what excites him about sharing Helena's history!

Thank you to our generous sponsors for their support of History Hikes & Walks

MEET HANNAH

White Sulphur Springs' own Hannah Clemenson is our summer intern here at the Foundation and author of the story above. Hannah is an International Studies major with minors in Communications and History. She starts her junior year at Dominican University of California in San Rafael, California this fall. Hannah says she loves the complex history of Montana. She also has a passion for the small businesses and towns that make our state so unique. In her spare time, Hannah writes and performs traditional country music and enjoys camping and hiking with her friends and family.

UPCOMING GRANT WORKSHOPS

Join Heritage Projects & Grants Manager Kate McCourt this fall as we take our grant writing workshops on the road again! She'll be in Jordan, Big Timber, and Philipsburg to share practical, step-by-step tools and tips for developing winning grant proposals.

Please call the host organization to register.

Our 2021 fall grant writing workshops are funded in part by grants from Humanities Montana, an affiliate of the National Endowment for the Humanities, and the Jerry Metcalf Foundation.
